Boris Kirov
Product Designer

My name is Boris Kirov. I'm a Bulgarian designer living in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. I use technology to express myself and I'm currently contributing to the Observability in Elastic. In my spare time, I enjoy exploring technology and building tools to empower others to build and progress. My passion for constant experimentation in the realm of design and experience keeps my busy and always hungry. Feel free to browse at www.boriskirov.me/playground.
